

FREE COURSE · COURSE BROCHURE

Free Orientation Course

A short, free introduction can help you decide whether support work and community services are a direction worth exploring.

Course overview

Get a clear introduction to the NDIS and the work of a support worker before choosing your next learning pathway.

What you'll learn

- Understand the purpose of the NDIS
- Explore the support worker role
- Identify practical next steps into care and community work

Training and RTO

Orientation content supplied through the Australasian Centre For Work Education Pty Ltd (ACWE) partnership.

At a glance

Qualification	FREE COURSE
Duration	2 Hours
Delivery	Online
Fee	Enquire for pricing

Entry and enrolment

No additional entry requirements are listed for this course. Ask RIGBI about suitability and enrolment steps.

Assessment

Self-paced orientation activities.

Intake and next steps

Start anytime online.

Career opportunities

- Understand the support worker role
- Identify the next qualification to investigate
- Prepare better questions for an adviser
- Build a foundation for further study

Further study

If the sector feels right, compare Certificate III in Individual Support and relevant short courses before starting an application.

Explore your next step

rigbigroup.com.au/courses/free-orientation-course/